Grand Knight's Message

Patrick "Pat" Murray, Grand Knight

Brothers,

As we enter November, it is becoming difficult to keep track of the significant progress we have made in the short few months of our Fraternal Year. Sincere appreciation to the Knights who joined us for our Monthly First Friday Holy hour in Adoration of our Eucharistic Lord. A hearty thank you to all of the Brother Knights lead by James Hogan under the able tutelage of the Tim Hogan for our Council Food trailer at the Fall Festival. It was a great day in sales (we ran out of food) but more importantly representing the Knights of Columbus in our community. And the momentum continued with our recruiting table at the Parish Sunday Coffee and donuts in the gym. Through our continued presence, we are demonstrating our visible commitment and support to our Church and Community, and serving as an example for Catholic Men seeking to serve in their Church in fellowship and fraternity.

As we enter into November, we have more opportunities to pray in front of our Lord at our Monthly Holy Hour. Additionally on November 23rd, we will have our Corporate Communion at the 9AM Mass. As is the tradition for our Council, we will pray for the souls of our departed brothers during this month of November and host a small reception after Mass for all Knights and their families, and especially widows of Knights who have earned their eternal reward.

Additionally, on November 23rd at 3PM, St. Leos will have the Eucharistic Procession to celebrate Christ the King through the City of Fairfax. Fourth Degree Knights of the Assembly will be leading the Procession and our help as Marshals will be needed.

We are making progress on the many Hall Management and Maintenance initiatives as noted elsewhere in this newsletter. We will have several work days coming up in November and December. Please consider supporting your Council and maintaining and improving the Hall as part of this important initiative.

Finally, we held our first COR meeting, on October 28th, focusing on the Grace of God. Grace is what is given to us by God so that we might attain eternal life; it is impossible for us to attain eternal life apart from God's grace, and it is solely due to God's grace that we can be saved and enter into Heaven. We receive his grace as a gift from God and we are Saved by His Grace through our Faith and our Work as Knights in support of our Church and Charities. We have a few more of these discussions this year to help us grow as Men of Faith. Thanks for your continued support of our Council. As always please let me know how I can continue to support you and our Council.

Fall Festival 2025

Deputy Grand Knight's Report

Daniel "Dan" Perugini, Deputy Grand Knight

Brothers,

As we enter the month of November, we remember the month is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed from this life but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. St. Paul warns us that we must not be ignorant concerning the dead, nor sorrowful, "even as others who have no hope ... For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven ... and the dead who are in Christ shall rise.

The Church has always taught us to pray for those who have gone into eternity. Even in the Old Testament prayers and alms were offered for the souls of the dead by those who thought "well and religiously concerning the resurrection." It was believed that "they who had fallen asleep with godliness had great grace laid up for them" and that "it is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins." We know that a defiled soul cannot enter into heaven.

Many thanks to all the Knights who have contributed in any way to our Council this past year, through service or through simple prayers. We are so fortunate through the Grace of God to have such a strong group of Men dedicated to the ideals of our order, Fraternity, Charity, and Unity.

Special thanks to those who helped with the Fall Festival. For this and other activities that we do on behalf of the Council and the Church the support and assistance appreciated by the parish and leadership.

We have quite a few activities in September where we could use your support:

November 4th – 7:30 PM Officers Meeting

November 8th – 1-2 Am Eucharistic Adoration, Rosary to End Abortion 830AM

November 10th – Feast of St Leo

November 13th-15th – Thanksgiving Basket collection and distribution

November 15th-16th – Recruiting Weekend at All Masses

November 18th – Fraternal Benefits Night

November 23rd – 9AM Mass Corporal Communion

November 25th – 6:45PM Dinner, 7:30PM Rosary, 8PM Business Meeting

November 27th – Thanksgiving

Christmas Trees Starts Soon!

Christmas will be here before you know it. Tree sales are our biggest fundraiser and we need the help of all the members of council. There are two pivotal events that start off tree season. Both of these we need a good-sized contingent of men to help. First on Friday 28 Nov we will assemble the tree lot starting at 930 am. Just show up at the storage area next to the parking lot entrance the school. Second on Saturday 29 Nov the tree will arrive around 930. Just show up by the tree lot then. For further information contact Tim Tilson at hmslydia@man.com or Steve Rodgers stevepatty1976@gmail.com.

Chaplain's Message

Rev. Fr. James Joseph, Council Chaplain

In addition to the Church's yearly reminder of the Church Triumphant on All Saints' and the Church Suffering on All Souls', the beginning of November also brings with it a reminder of the anti-Catholicism which used to exist in the English-speaking world – and still does sadly in some quarters of our society. Catholics being looked upon with suspicion and even outright hatred by some is unfortunately not a new reality, nor is our own time the worst. Far from it.

On November 5, 1605, English authorities foiled a foolhardy conspiracy against King James I led by two men named Robert Catesby and Guy Fawkes, though others were involved. The plan was to hide 36 barrels of gunpowder beneath the English Parliament and detonate it while the king was before the House of Lords. Catesby and the others were English Catholics who had lost hope in the efforts of their fellow Catholics to secure their religious freedom. Being a Catholic in England had long been outlawed since 1559 and the accession of King James' mother, Elizabeth I, and the property and even the very life of a Catholic was forfeit to the state depending on the circumstances. Unfortunately for Catesby, Fawkes, and the others, the misguided plot was discovered by government agents. Catesby was killed in the fight which preceded their capture, and Fawkes was publicly hanged, drawn, and quartered – a brutal punishment reserved for treason. It was the more sensational Fawkes who thus became the face of the failed plot.

The 'Fifth of November' was turned into an English – and later British – national holiday, known as 'Bonfire Night.' Poems and songs were written, most beginning famously, "Remember, remember, the fifth of November, Gunpowder Treason and Plot!" Originally, the custom was to make wood and straw effigies of Guy Fawkes and even the Pope (then Pope Clement VIII, who was ironically very against any violence by Catholics in England) for public burning and parade. Much later, an English editor named Titus Oates invented a 'Popish Plot' conspiracy theory which caused huge anti-Catholic riots in London from 1678-1681, all invoking the specter of 1605.

Thus, November 5 became the most visceral symbol of English anti-Catholicism. The plot – and everything that preceded it – was the formation of a culture deeply suspicious and resentful of everything Catholic. The custom even took root in the British colonies in America, where it was known as 'Pope Night.' So popular was it that George Washington ordered that it not be observed by the soldiers of the Continental Army so as not to offend their French Catholic allies.

Bonfire Night lingers on in Britain today. Every so often, one can still spot the Pope or a modern, grotesque take on Guy Fawkes. But it has changed over time. Now, it is much more popular to burn effigies of unpopular politicians than to call up the ghost of 1605. But every year on the 'Fifth of November,' one can still hear the ghost of English bigotry stir. And it reminds us all of the ongoing threat of bigotry and ignorance.

Financial Advisor Report

This time of year, we give thanks for the many blessings in our lives. Like many of you, I became a Knight out of love for my family. I wanted to join other Catholic men in becoming a better man, husband and father. I wanted to be a better protector of my family.

One way to protect your family is to start thinking about your family's future and how an extended care event could have a large impact. Do you know somebody that has experienced an extended care event – if so, how did that impact their family's situation?

Connect with your agent to discuss how to create an extended care plan.

Lastly, I'd like to remind you of your 2025 Annual Survey and the opportunity to update the Knights of Columbus on your personal financial goals and share any updates you have had over the last year. If you haven't already filled it out, I strongly encourage you to do so.

Please fill out the survey as soon as you can, either through the survey you received in the mail or online at <https://survey.kofc.org>. Thank you

All Hands on Deck – Fall Recruiting Campaign after Mass.

All Brothers are requested to support the Fall Recruiting Campaign after every Mass on November 15th and 16th. Father Bresnahan has offered for us to speak after each Mass. Our Theme for this years recruiting Campaign is Men in Service. We will have information in the Bulletin, flyers sent around at the school, and hopefully a large presence of Men at each door after Mass. Recruiting is the lifeblood of our Council, and it must be our highest priority. We will be asking to support the campaign at a minimum of 2 Masses during that weekend.

Knight of the Month – October

Brian Sharkey

Sometimes it's the steady hand behind the scenes, advising on key matters, offering expertise based on his experience, and contributing on projects that make a difference. In the last 60 days Brian Sharkey provided advice of the best wood to be used to cook the food at the Parish Picnic, led the cabling and installation of cameras at the Hall, and engineered a solution to connect to the Parish internet saving the Council $2400 per year. Brian is that steady hand, always ready to support the Knights when called on. A Big Thank you for all your efforts at the Father Diamond Council.

Family of the Month—October

Tony and Amy Pierno

If you saw the Knights of Columbus food trailer at the Fairfax Fall Festival, you were greeted by Amy Pierno who ably managed the cash box, credit card machine and handed out the chips and soda. Behind the trailer, Tony was working the grill serving up hot dogs, hamburgers, and kielbasa. At some points, we couldn't keep up with demand, but Tony and Amy were serving with a smile. Our Council is fortunate to have dedicated families like Tony and Amy always ready to jump in and help whether it be at fundraisers, fraternal events, or helping out at the Hall. Thanks as always for your continued support at our Council.
